THE STRIKE—COL. CLARK—TWO FIGHTS—SICK CHIEF.
Special to the Star.
LOUISVILLE, Oct. 3.—The Cabinet-makers met again last night at Beck's Hall to hear from one of the manufacturers. The strikers are determined, and stand perfectly firm. The men in two factories went to work this morning.

St. Louis.

JOSEPH'S JOKE—HARRIS GUARDS—RECEPTION FOR CARL.
Special to the Star.
ST. LOUIS, Oct. 3.—Joseph H. Dana went home last night looking solemn, kissed his wife a mournful good-by, and, pulling out a pistol, placed it to his head and fired. His wife fell into hysterics, and a policeman coming in, found Joseph laughing at his joke, as he did not intend to shuffle, but wanted to scare her. He was locked up, and will be tried to-morrow for his nonsense.

Indianapolis.

FUN AT THE FAIR—KANSAS EMIGRANTS—LAKE'S LONG WALK.
Special to the Star.
INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 3.—To-morrow will be the last day of the Fair, when will take place the great twenty-mile race in fifty minutes, by John Jones. In making this race the rider is compelled to mount and dismount thirty-six times, and ride the horses bare-back.

UNEARTHING THE CONSPIRACY.
National Associated Press to the Star.
LONDON, Oct. 3.—The Spanish Government continues to make arrests of suspected conspirators in the principal towns and cities of the Kingdom. The Government appears to be in possession of information confirming the opinion that an extensive and formidable conspiracy had been organized, and was on the point of developing its plans. Some of the men arrested have been up to this time generally believed to be entirely loyal to monarchy, and to have no affiliations either with the movement in favor of Don Carlos or with republican aspirations.

France.

MORE TROOPS FOR CUBA.
The Cabinet at Madrid have resolved to still further reinforce the army in Cuba, and orders have been given for the preparation of transports to convey several thousand additional troops to that island.

MEEKER'S LAST DISPATCH.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE STAR.
CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—A Times Cheyenne special to-day says the excitement throughout Wyoming Territory over the Thorneburg disaster is unabated. Nothing later from the front since the courier came out with official dispatches on the 30th inst. Two more companies went west yesterday to join Col. Merritt. They were from Fort McPherson, and numbered one hundred and fifty men. They will reach Rawlins at midnight. A copy of the last dispatch sent out by Agent Meeker has been received here from Rawlins. It is dated Sept. 26th, and is interesting as showing the state of affairs there at that time, and as a seeming contradiction to the statements of Scout Lawrey. The dispatch is addressed to Indian Commissioner Hoyt, Washington, and says:

If the soldiers arrest the Indians and go away I must go with them. The soldiers must stay. Large bodies of Indians are leaving for the North to hunt. They insist that I should give out blankets now. I refused. The trade in guns and ammunition on Bear and Snake Rivers is brisk. Company D, Ninth Cavalry, is at Steamboat Springs awaiting instructions which came to-day from Gen. Hatch, and are forwarded by express. Signed N. C. MEEKER.

Governor Pitkin, of Colorado, has offered to furnish all the men needed to crush out Utes if the Secretary of War will accept the services.

THE OUTRAGES IN NEW MEXICO.

SPECIAL TO THE STAR.
DENVER, COLO., Oct. 3.—A special to the Tribune from Santa Fe, New Mexico, gives the narrative of E. B. Learned, only survivor of four men attacked by the Indians near Hillsboro. They fought eight times their number of reds, and when his companions were all killed Learned crept away in the weeds.

They killed six Indians. The Indians

ALL HOPE VANISHED

And the St. Louis Aeronauts Numbered With the Lost.

SPECIAL TO THE STAR.
ST. LOUIS, Oct. 3.—All hope that Prof. John Wise and George Burr, who made the balloon ascension last Sunday afternoon, are safe has vanished, and there is no doubt but what the two men have been killed.

John Wise, Jr., a grandson of the Professor, says his grandfather is safe if he did not drop in the lake, or in the woods so far from civilization that he could get no food. Prof. Wise was a veteran aeronaut, and, though in his seventy-second year, hale and hearty. This was his fourth hundred and sixty-first ascension.

He had made aeronautics a life-long study, and written a book on air-sailing. His son John and daughter Lillie are professional balloonists. Young Burr, Wise's companion, is teller of the St. Louis National Bank, and was greatly esteemed here. At 11:40 Monday night the ship was seen twenty miles west of Laporte, Ind., and moving over Lake Michigan. This is the last heard of it.

Later Sporting News.

FOR THE O'LEARY BELT.
